Regulations for Participants of the Event "Health AI & Cybersec Summit 2025" and Users of the haicsummit.com Website

I. GENERAL PROVISIONS

1. These regulations define the terms of use of the haicsummit.com website and participation in the "Health AI & Cybersec Summit 2025" event by natural persons and legal entities and regulate the rights and obligations of the parties related to the provision of services.
2. The following terms, when written with a capital letter, shall have the following meanings in these Regulations:
    a. Administrator – a person designated by the Organizer responsible for ensuring compliance with these Regulations.
    b. Data Administrator – an entity that determines the purposes and means of processing personal data. The Data Administrator is the Academic Partners Foundation, ul. Kwitnąca 6/46, 01-926 Warsaw, NIP: 1182088939.
    c. Organizer – MB Services, ul. Kwitnąca 6/46, 01-926 Warsaw, NIP: 1181924871.
    d. Partner – an entity cooperating with the Organizer based on appropriate agreements, providing financial and/or promotional support for the Event.
    e. Data Processor – an entity entrusted with the processing of personal data by the Data Administrator under Article 28 of the GDPR.
    f. Regulations – these Regulations, which define the rights and obligations of the Parties.
    g. GDPR – Regulation (EU) 2016/679 of the European Parliament and of the Council of April 27, 2016, on the protection of natural persons concerning the processing of personal data and the free movement of such data, repealing Directive 95/46/EC (General Data Protection Regulation).
    h. Website – the online service available at haicsummit.com.
    i. Financial Intermediary Service – PayU.
    j. Party or Parties – the Organizer and/or the User and/or a legal entity.
    k. Copyright Law – The Act of February 4, 1994, on Copyright and Related Rights (Journal of Laws 2017, item 880).
    l. User / Participant – a natural person who is at least 18 years old and qualifies as a consumer within the meaning of Article 22 of the Civil Code of April 23, 1964.
    m. Event – an event organized by the Organizing Committee consisting of:
        i. Main Organizer: MB Services
        ii. Executive Organizer: Academic Partners Foundation
        iii. Supporting Organizers: The Hack Summit, IS Consulting, Secure IT, AMC Data
3. The Event consists of the conference segment, "Health AI & Cybersec Summit," and the exhibition segment, "Health AI & Cybersec Expo."
4. Every User is required to read these Regulations before registering.
5. The User may take further actions only after reading and accepting all provisions of these Regulations.
6. These Regulations comprehensively specify the rights and obligations of the Parties concerning the provision of services.
7. The Regulations are made available to Users free of charge on the Website in a manner that allows them to obtain, reproduce, and store their content.

II. COMMENCEMENT OF SERVICE PROVISION

1. The subject of the agreement is the provision of services related to participation in the Event and all its components.

2. The moment of commencement of service provision is when the funds transferred by the Participant are credited to the Organizer's account. In the case of a service that does not require payment (e.g., a free ticket), the service begins upon registration confirmation.
3. The requirements for Registration include:
    a. Possession of an active email account.
    b. Being at least 18 years old (in exceptional cases, the Organizer may grant an exemption from this rule) or having Student Status. The Organizer reserves the right to verify age or Student Status before or during the event.
4. By registering, the User declares that:
    a. The data provided during registration is true.
    b. They are authorized to enter into an agreement for the provision of services.
    c. They have read and fully accept the Regulations and Privacy Policy without any exceptions or reservations and undertake to comply with them. If the User purchases a ticket for the Event and makes a payment through the Financial Intermediary Service, they also accept the regulations of that service.
5. If the User provides false or outdated data, the Administrator has the right to:
    a. Request immediate correction of the data.
    b. Refuse or withdraw the User's registration.
6. Each Event Participant must have an individual ticket. Tickets are personal and cannot be shared.
7. The Organizer reserves the right to cancel the registration of any previously registered participant without providing a reason.
8. The agreement is concluded for the service referred to in Section V, Clause 2, i.e., enabling the User to download a ticket for the Event, for a fixed period until the Event concludes.

III. TECHNICAL REQUIREMENTS OF THE ONLINE SERVICE

1. Using the services offered on the Website requires an Internet connection and a web browser.
2. The User is solely responsible for ensuring the confidentiality of transmitted data concerning the devices and networks they use.
3. The Organizer is not responsible for the security of data transmitted by the User. The Organizer is only responsible for data once it has been stored in the Organizer's system.
4. The Organizer is not responsible for the security of data transmitted by the User through other services/platforms to which the User may be redirected via the Website.

IV. GENERAL RULES FOR USING THE ONLINE SERVICE

1. Any actions that may hinder or destabilize the operation of the Website are prohibited. If the Administrator detects any attempts to destabilize the Website, the Administrator may block the User from registering for other events organized by the Organizer in the future. Such actions may also be considered a criminal offense under the Penal Code.
2. The User is obliged to respect intellectual property rights, including copyrights, patents, trademarks, and industrial design rights of others.
3. The User must respect the privacy of others.
4. It is strictly forbidden to post or distribute on the Website:
    a. Software protected by the rights of third parties without their explicit consent.
    b. Computer passwords, access codes, or other data that would allow unauthorized persons to access information stored in computer systems or telecommunications networks.
5. It is prohibited to use the Website's services to advertise goods, services, or commercial websites and to send or share content commonly regarded as spam.

V. SERVICES FOR USERS OF THE ONLINE SERVICE

1. The Organizer provides both paid and free services to Users through the Website.

2. Paid services offered by the Organizer include enabling the User to download an Event ticket from the Website and access recordings of presentations.
3. The Organizer provides the "Newsletter" service free of charge to every User:
    a. The "Newsletter" service consists of occasional messages sent to the email address or phone number provided by the User during Event registration.
    b. The purpose of the service is to inform the User about current events, services, products, or recruitment offers provided by the Event Organizer or its Partners.
    c. The current list of Partners is available at fundacjaap.org.pl/partners and may be subject to changes. The Organizer only shares information from selected and trusted Partners.
4. By registering for the Event, the User accepts the provision of all the above-mentioned services as a condition for participation.

VI. FEES FOR PARTICIPATION IN THE EVENT

1. The User is required to pay the participation fee by purchasing a ticket according to the price list available on the Website. The components of individual packages are specified on the Website.
2. The Public Package is available exclusively to representatives of the public sector.
    a. To obtain a free ticket under this package, the Participant must register using an email address with a gov domain or provide other proof of eligibility (e.g., employer certification) by sending it to hello@haicsummit.com within 3 business days of registration.
    b. Tickets are free and are awarded through an application process. The decision to award tickets is made by the Organizer based on the information and justification provided in the participant's application.
    c. The pool of Public tickets is strictly limited. The order of application review is determined by the date of submission and the substantive quality of the application.
    d. The Organizer reserves the right to reject applications and not award free tickets without providing a reason. The Organizer's decision in this regard is final and not subject to appeal.
    e. If false information is detected during the application process, the Organizer has the right to immediately cancel the awarded ticket at any stage.
    f. Tickets awarded through an application process are strictly assigned to the applicant. Due to the individual application verification process, tickets cannot be transferred to another person. The provisions of Section X, paragraph 2 of these Regulations (concerning the possibility of designating another participant in the event of the original Participant being unable to participate) do not apply to Public tickets.
3. Solution providers who are not Event Partners and wish to promote their products and services to Event participants must purchase a dedicated Vendor package.
4. The Online, Online+, Basic, Basic+, Standard, Exec, and Vendor packages are available to individuals and business entities. The offer for individuals may differ from that for businesses. If an invoice is required, the User must select the "purchase for business" option and provide a VAT number during registration.
    a. Failure to provide a VAT number during ticket purchase means an invoice cannot be issued.
5. If entitled to VAT exemption, the Participant must notify the Organizer before payment and provide supporting documents. Failure to do so will result in the issuance of a VAT-inclusive invoice.
6. Optional additional services are available to all individuals.
7. The User is informed of the contract conclusion via an email sent to the address provided during registration.
8. Timely payment is required to receive a ticket for Event participation.
9. At the User’s request, the Organizer may extend the payment deadline.
10. Payment must be made after correctly filling out the registration form by each Event Participant separately. This applies to group tickets as well.
11. Upon receiving payment, the Organizer will send the User an electronic ticket via email.

12. Upon receiving payment, the Organizer will issue an electronic invoice with a 23% VAT rate. The User agrees to receive an invoice without signatures from authorized individuals.
13. The notification becomes effective upon the Organizer's acknowledgment of its content.

VII. OBLIGATIONS AND RIGHTS OF THE ORGANIZER REGARDING THE ONLINE SERVICE

1. The Organizer will exercise due diligence to ensure the continuous and uninterrupted provision of services. However, the Organizer does not guarantee constant availability of the services and functionalities provided, nor the free operation of the Service.
2. The User's use of the Service is entirely voluntary, and the User assumes full responsibility for using the Service.
3. The Service is compatible with the most popular web browsers.
4. The Organizer reserves the right to modify the services and operation of the Service at any time and to take any legally permissible actions related to the Service.
5. The Organizer is not responsible for:
    a. Any damages resulting from errors, failures, or interruptions in the functioning of the Service.
    b. The consequences of non-performance or improper performance of obligations undertaken by anyone through the Service, as well as their ability to undertake such obligations.
    c. Technical issues with the Service, including updates, data loss, or actions taken by Users or third parties.
    d. The use of information obtained through the Service by Users, including any consequences resulting from decisions made by Users based on such information.
    e. Technical problems or limitations in the telecommunication systems used by all types if mobile devices of Users that may restrict or prevent access to the Service.

VIII. OBLIGATIONS AND RIGHTS OF THE USER REGARDING THE ONLINE SERVICE

1. Users are obliged to use the Service in compliance with applicable laws, the Regulations, and principles of social conduct, including the general rules of Internet use.
2. Each Event participant must create an individual account in the Service, linked to the purchased ticket. Sharing an account or using it by more than one person is prohibited.
3. In fulfilling the obligations mentioned in section 1, Users are specifically required to:
    a. Use the Service in a manner that does not disrupt its functioning.
    b. Use the Service with respect for the personal rights and legal rights of third parties (including privacy rights).
    c. Use the Service in a way that does not inconvenience other Users or the Organizer.
    d. Use any information and materials available through the Service solely for personal use.
4. The services provided by the Organizer are intended for the personal use of Users, and their full or partial use for any other purpose is prohibited.
5. The User is obliged to immediately notify the Organizer of any violation of their rights and/or personal interests in connection with the use of the Service.
6. Service Malfunctions: In case of a software malfunction (Registration, Participant Account, Exhibition Hall, or other event-related features), the User must immediately notify the Organizer. The Organizer, as part of the provided support, will make every effort to resolve the issue. However, the Organizer is not responsible for malfunctions, especially those caused by factors beyond its control or improper use of the Service.
7. Proper Functioning of the Service: The Service is optimized for use with the latest versions of Firefox and Chrome on PC computers. The Organizer is not responsible for improper functioning of the Service when using browsers other than the officially supported versions or when applying restrictive security settings on the User's side (e.g., content filtering via Proxy). The Organizer is also not responsible for failing to fulfill some of its obligations if previously unknown technological limitations are identified.

IX. RULES OF PARTICIPATION IN THE EVENT

1. Regardless of ticket possession, entry to the event is prohibited for:
    a. Persons listed in the register of individuals banned from mass events.
    b. Persons carrying intoxicants, alcoholic beverages, psychotropic substances, weapons, pyrotechnic or explosive materials, or other dangerous items or tools, as well as those carrying objects that prevent identification (e.g., balaclavas).
    c. Persons displaying aggressive behavior, refusing to present a valid identification document, or refusing a baggage or clothing check (if suspected of attempting to bring prohibited substances or items).
    d. Minors without adult supervision.
2. The following individuals will be removed from the premises:
    a. Those who behave aggressively, disrupt the event in any way, or pose a threat to others.
    b. Those who have entered or brought prohibited substances or items despite the ban.
3. The consumption of alcohol or the use of any other intoxicants is prohibited at the event venue.
    a. This provision does not apply to "preparty" and "afterparty" meetings organized in designated areas.
4. Attendees must comply with the instructions of the Organizer, security personnel, and event staff.
5. Those who resist security or event staff will be immediately handed over to the police.
6. Guardians or parents are responsible for minors attending the event.
7. By entering the event premises, attendees consent to the free use of their likeness for photography, filming, or any other type of recording related to the event. This also includes the transmission, distribution, or publication of their image and voice in connection with any initiatives of the Organizer.
8. In the event of a fire or other emergency, attendees should:
    a. Immediately notify Security or Event Staff.
    b. Avoid panic.
    c. Follow the instructions provided by Security or Event Staff.
    d. Proceed to emergency exits via designated routes.
    e. Avoid obstructing the access of emergency services.
9. Event participants must conduct themselves in a way that does not endanger others, adhering to all safety rules, including health and safety regulations (BHP), fire safety (PPOŻ.), and any organizational or technical instructions from the Organizer's representatives.
10. Sanitary Conditions: Attendees must adhere to sanitary guidelines, which will be communicated to them a few days before the event.

X. WITHDRAWAL FROM PARTICIPATION IN THE EVENT

1. Participants have the right to withdraw from the Event.
    a. Withdrawal can be done by deleting the account on the Event platform. The removal from the participant list takes effect immediately upon confirmation of account deletion.
    b. Due to the costs associated with reserving a spot (ticket purchase), refunds are not available.
2. If a participant is unable to attend the Event due to reasons beyond their control, they may transfer their ticket to another person.
    a. The ticket transfer can be completed by updating the assigned account details after logging into the Event platform.

XI. CHANGES TO EVENT DATES AND REGISTRATION

1. The Organizer reserves the right to extend or close registration early if all available participant slots are filled.
2. The Organizer will post information on the Event website regarding the number of available spots and any changes to the Event schedule.

3. The Organizer reserves the right to change the event date and format (including agreed-upon services) up to two weeks before the scheduled date. In exceptional cases (especially those beyond the Organizer's control), this period may be shorter. The Organizer also reserves the right to notify Users of such changes without providing details but specifying a deadline or conditions under which further details will be disclosed.

XII. EVENT CANCELLATION

1. In the event of unforeseen circumstances beyond the Organizer's control, the Organizer reserves the right to change the date, program, or other aspects of the Event, or to cancel it entirely. Participants will be informed via the email addresses provided during registration.
2. To the fullest extent permitted by Polish law, the Organizer disclaims liability for any damages incurred by Participants due to the organization, execution, cancellation, or rescheduling of the Event. The Organizer is also not responsible for any lost benefits or potential profits of Participants as a result of these changes.

XIII. CHANGES TO THE EVENT REGULATIONS AND TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1. The Organizer has the right to modify these Terms and Conditions at any time. Changes take effect upon being posted on the Service website. By continuing to use the Service, the User is deemed to have accepted the changes. If a User does not accept the changes, they should discontinue use of the Service and delete their account.
2. Any modifications will be published in a consolidated version of the Terms and Conditions on the Service website, along with a notice regarding the changes.
3. Users are required to review the updated Terms and Conditions immediately upon receiving notification of the changes via email.
4. The User bears responsibility for providing an email address that they do not have access to, is incorrect, or belongs to another entity. The Organizer is not liable for any consequences resulting from the User's failure to receive the notification due to these issues.
5. The User assumes the risk of not receiving the notification mentioned in section 2 for reasons beyond the Organizer's control.

XIV. COMPLAINTS

1. Any disruptions in the operation of the Service, as well as problems and concerns related to the services provided (complaints), should be directed to the email address hello@haicsummit.com.
2. Properly submitted complaints will be reviewed within 14 business days from the date of receipt. If the information or data provided in the complaint requires supplementation, the Organizer will request the User to provide additional details before considering the complaint. The complaint review period will be extended by the time needed to obtain additional explanations.
3. The Organizer informs that complaints related to Services that require access to the Service and concern services provided electronically by third parties, including the Financial Intermediation Service, will be handled by those entities according to the terms and procedures specified in their service regulations.
4. In the case of an unjustified complaint made through the chargeback process in the Financial Intermediation Service, the Participant will be charged all costs incurred by the Event Organizer due to this action, as well as an additional contractual penalty of 1000 PLN net.

XV. PERSONAL DATA

1. The Organizer informs that, pursuant to Article 4(7) of the GDPR, it is the administrator of the Participant's personal data and processes it in accordance with the GDPR and the Act of May 10, 2018, on the Protection of Personal Data.

2. The Participant's personal data is processed for purposes related to registration and participation in the Event. Processing is therefore necessary for the performance of a contract to which the data subject is a party or to take action at the request of the data subject before entering into a contract (Article 6(1)(b) of the GDPR in connection with Articles 5 and 8 of the Act of July 18, 2002, on the Provision of Electronic Services).
3. In the case of paid participation in the Event, the Participant's personal data will be processed for purposes related to compliance with tax law requirements, as processing is necessary to fulfill a legal obligation imposed on the administrator (Article 6(1)(c) of the GDPR).
4. If the Participant wishes to receive recruitment offers from Partners, their personal data will be processed based on the Participant's consent given during the Event registration (Article 6(1)(a) of the GDPR). Data will be processed for this purpose until consent is withdrawn.
5. The Participant's personal data, in the case of free participation in the Event, will be processed until the electronic service is completed and the account is deleted from the online service.
6. The Participant's personal data, in the case of paid participation in the Event, will be processed until the electronic service is completed and the account is deleted from the online service, and for the period necessary to meet legal requirements in the area of tax law, i.e., for 5 years from the end of the calendar year in which the settlement was made.
7. The Participant's personal data may be shared with Sponsors and Partners of the Event with the Participant's voluntary consent. In the case of data being shared with a third party (Sponsors and Partners of the Event), the Participant will be informed each time by that third party about the purposes and methods of processing personal data and the rights granted to them.
8. Data automatically collected by the browser is used to analyze user behavior on the Organizer's website, collect demographic data about users, or personalize the content of the Organizer's websites. This data is automatically collected from each user by the external Google Analytics system.
9. Users are not subject to profiling by the Organizer. However, users may be subject to profiling by external content providers to the Service – Facebook and Google services.
10. The User has the right to access their personal data, rectify it, delete it, limit processing, transfer it, object to processing, withdraw consent, and file a complaint with the supervisory authority. Any concerns regarding the processing of personal data should be reported to hello@haicsummit.com.
11. The collection of data is entirely voluntary. The User acknowledges that failure to provide personal data may effectively prevent participation in the Event and confirms, by registering, that they will not raise any claims in this regard.

XVI. FINAL PROVISIONS

1. The Event Organizer is not responsible for the belongings of Participants that may be lost, destroyed, or stolen during the Event.
2. Participants bear full financial responsibility for any damage they cause to the venue where the Event is held.
3. Participants cover their own travel, accommodation, food, and insurance costs unless otherwise defined during registration (e.g., a ticket including accommodation is offered).
4. These Terms and Conditions come into effect on the day they are made available on the Event's website.
